

Hello Bruin graduate students! I am Noreen Ahmed, a MPP at the Luskin School of Public Affairs who is ready to serve you in two ways:

1. By proactively listening to your ideas and concerns and bringing our community's most pressing agendas to local and national change agents. I am the conduit for your vision!
2. By finding ways to bolster the leadership we each hold as UCLA change agents through innovative ways to serve the most disenfranchised members of Greater Los Angeles.

There has never been a more profound time to serve our world and we are on the front lines of these efforts!

Over the last decade, I have been a case manager for low-income youth, a Peace Corps volunteer, and a two-term AmeriCorps volunteer. I live to serve others and will give you my best to keep us Moving Forward!
